| 2. We have laid up our love and our treasure above,Though our bodies continue below.The redeemed of the Lord will remember His Word,And with singing to paradise go.       | 4. For the glory we were first created to share,Both the nature and kingdom divine,Now created again that our lives may remainThroughout time and eternity Thine.         | 6. There, Oh! there at His feet, we shall all likewise meet,And be parted in body no more;We shall sing to our lyres, with the heavenly choirs,And our Savior in glory adore. |
| 3. Now with singing and praise let us spend all the daysBy our heavenly Father bestowed,While His grace we receive from His bounty, and liveTo the honor and glory of God! | 5. We with thanks do approve the designOf that love that hath joined us to Jesus' Name;Now united in heart, let us never more part,Till we meet at the feast of the Lamb. | 7. Hallelujah! we sing to our Father and King,And His rapturous praises repeat:To the Lamb that was slain, Hallelujah again!Sing all Heaven and fall at His feet!             |
